

College of Education, Associate Professor, Tenure-Track

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

Position: College of Education, Ed.D. Program in Assessment, Learning & School Improvement

Responsibilities include assisting in the Ed.D. Program, including course implementation, as well as directing and serving on doctoral committees, and teaching within the program and other courses as needed. The Ed.D. Program provides courses in a cohort format that meet on Friday evenings and Saturdays. Additionally, the candidate selected for this position will be expected to engage in research and scholarly activity, as well as public service initiatives. Specifically, this position requires assisting area school districts in school improvement efforts. Faculty members are expected to actively participate in university, college and departmental activities. Excellence in teaching, research/creative activity and service is expected for all positions. MTSU seeks candidates committed to using integrative technologies in teaching.

Minimum Qualifications: Doctoral degree with a record of university teaching at the graduate level, including serving on doctoral dissertation committees required. Candidates must possess a strong record of scholarly research and meet Middle Tennessee State University Graduate Council standards for teaching doctoral level course work and serving on doctoral dissertation committees. Candidates must also provide evidence of successful teaching and leading experience in K-12 public school setting.

Preferred Qualifications: Preference will be given to candidates who have a demonstrated record of teaching graduate level courses in areas such as cognitive learning theory, instructional design and improvement, collaborative teaming, highly effective schools, effective teaching research, and school improvement. Preference will be given to candidates who have successfully directed doctoral dissertations through completion and graduation of doctoral candidates. Preference will be given to candidates who meet the Middle Tennessee State University Graduate Council standards for Regular Graduate Faculty status, and who are eligible for chairing doctoral dissertations. Preference will also be given to candidates who provide evidence of successfully assisting school districts and schools in improving student achievement.

Salary and Rank: Rank and salary commensurate with education and experience.

Appointment: Full time tenure-track appointment beginning August 1, 2014.

Applications are only accepted online. To apply for this position, please go to <https://mtsujobs.mtsu.edu>

Applicants: Required documents for a complete application:

1. Cover letter

2. Curriculum vitae

Submit as other document(s):

3. Statement of teaching philosophy

4. Research interest statement

If you are selected for an interview you will need to provide additional documents. Don't send materials to the search committee chair. Official transcripts (not issued to student) of all degrees and three original letters of recommendation, specific to position, are required prior to an on-campus interview. Please send to College of Education, MTSU Box 93, 1301 E. Main St, Murfreesboro, TN 37132. If you have questions, please contact the chair of the search committee, Dr. Rick Vanosdall at EdD@mtsu.edu. Proof of U.S. citizenship OR eligibility for U.S. employment will be required prior to employment (Immigration Control Act of 1986). Clery Act crime statistics for MTSU available at http://police.mtsu.edu/crime_statistics.htm or by contacting MTSU Public Safety at 615-898-2424.

Screening: Screening of applicants will begin October 28 and will continue until the position is filled.

Equal Opportunity Employer: MTSU, a culturally diverse university, is an equal opportunity, affirmative action educational institution and employer. Women, ethnic minorities, and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.